WE TRY, YOU BUY Quick-dry polishes

1 L'Oréal Paris Jet-Set-Diamond Nail Polish, £4.99

This one takes a little longer than the minute it claims, but it's still pretty nifty and leaves a nice glossy finish.

2 No7 Speed Dry Nail Colour, £6

It doesn't dry quite as quickly as the other polishes, but the end result looks much shinier and it leaves a fabulously streak-free finish in just one coat.

3 Rimmel 60 Seconds Vinyl Stars Nail Polish, £2.99

Glossy particles make this one look lovely and shimmery, plus it dries in a minute and stays chip-free for days.

4 Avon Speed Dry Nail Enamel, £5

Although this is definitely the quickest when it comes to setting, the colour looks slightly streaky so you'd need to apply two coats.

5 Miss Sporty Quick Dry in 1 Min Nail Polish, £1.99

This dries amazingly fast, but it leaves quite a dull finish. Great if you want an instant splash of colour on your nails, but maybe not for a professional look.

Jean Paul Gaultier
Parfumeur
Hair Mist, £20

A The great thing about ponytails is they're dead easy to do and can be worn at work during the day, as well as for nights on the town. A great way to style one in the evening – without feeling too schoolgirlish – is to invest in some fabulous accessories. For spring, you can't go wrong if you substitute a plain old elastic band with a gorgeous flower hairband. Or, to make yourself feel really special, you could spritz your ponytail with hair perfume, so whenever you move, you'll get a lovely swoosh of scent.
